MAGISTRATE'S TEMPORARY ORDER ON THERAPY FOR FATHER

Judge: [REDACTED]
Magis: [REDACTED]

Nick Joseph I [REDACTED]

Defendant

This matter came before the Court pursuant to the Judge's Decision Sustaining Objections entered September [REDACTED] by both parties on Father's Emergency Motion to Enforce Parenting Time filed July 29, 2025 and issues the following temporary order until further order of the Court:

1. The Court finds it is in the best interest of the minor child, [REDACTED] born [REDACTED] to order reunification therapy between Father and [REDACTED] to re-establish a healthy relationship between [REDACTED] and Father due to the significant amount of time of parental estrangement and the difficult issues that have been purported during that time. This reunification process shall focus on improving communication and rebuilding trust between E.J.L and Father. The Court further finds and orders the reunification process shall include professional therapy/counseling for Father to facilitate emotional healing and healthier dynamics for [REDACTED] and Father.

2. The Court further finds and orders to effectuate a permanent parenting time schedule for Father that is in the best interest of [REDACTED] Father shall participate in professional support to promote the best interest of [REDACTED] Father shall participate in parent coaching or therapy with [REDACTED] located at [REDACTED] Ohio 45242.

3. Father shall work with the parenting coach or counselor to address supporting [REDACTED] needs as a highly sensitive child, responding to [REDACTED] feelings, especially that of fear, using positive language when addressing [REDACTED] behavior, setting and enforcing clear expectations and boundaries with [REDACTED] learning how to understand [REDACTED] emotional needs with her anxiety, and any other recommendations made by the parenting coach or counselor.

4. Father shall contact ThrivePointe within seven (7) days of the date of this Order and shall commence the parenting coaching or counseling within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order. Father shall provide verification of enrollment in parenting coaching or counseling to the Court within five (5) days of beginning coaching or counseling.

5. Father shall participate in the parenting coaching or counseling sessions no less than twice per month, unless otherwise recommended by the coach or counselor, until further order of the Court.

6. Father shall participate in any reunification therapy as recommended by [REDACTED] therapist or evaluator.

7. Until further order of the Court, neither parent shall allow any romantic partner or significant other to be present during parenting time or to have any contact with the minor child, whether in person or virtually. This restriction includes overnight visits, brief introductions, or any other interaction between the child and any significant other. The purpose of this restriction is to preserve the child's emotional stability during the pendency of these proceedings.

8. Both parents are ordered to communicate respectfully and solely regarding matters concerning the welfare of the minor child.

9. Neither parent shall permit [REDACTED] to communicate with [REDACTED]

10. This is a temporary order and shall remain in effect until further order of the Court.

This matter is scheduled for a phone status report on November 20, 2025 at 11:30 AM for 30 minutes before Magistrate [REDACTED] for a report on the status of counseling and reunification therapy.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Copies of this order have been mailed to the parties or their counsel. This Order is effective immediately. Either party may appeal this order by filing a Motion to Set the Order Aside within ten days of the date this order is entered. The pendency of a Motion to Set the Order Aside does not stay the effectiveness of this order unless the Magistrate or Judge grants a stay.
